Annual Congregational Meeting Summary

St. Peter's 2023 congregational meeting was held following the service on Sunday, February 25. Ministry, committee, and financial reports were shared and accepted. The 2024 operating budget was presented and passed, with one adjustment to organ maintenance ($1,000 less). The resolutions calling for acceptance of minutes of previous meetings, acceptance of committee and auxiliary reports, acceptance of financial secretary and treasurer reports were passed. (Resolutions 1-4).

The congregation passed Resolution #5 calling for an amendment to the Five-Year Capital Plan. The amendment was to approve an increase of $45,000 to complete the Pipes for Praise Installation Project. During the discussion, Pastor Dennis announced that two anonymous donors had made commitments to contribute $44,000 to address the increases. (More information on these donations can be found elsewhere in this newsletter.)

Resolution #6 was passed to adopt the revised Five-Year Capital budget.

The equity transfers proposed in Resolution #7 also passed. Peg Flood presented the nominating committee's recommendations regarding positions on the congregational council, the nominating committee, synod assembly delegates, and the Cape Cod Council of Churches Annual Assembly. Lynn Archambault volunteered to serve on the nominating committee to fill the one vacancy. All nominees for all positions were approved by the congregation. (Resolution #8)

The meeting adjourned after a closing prayer.

Pastoral Perceptions

What are some of your favorite Bible verses? Which words or phrases cross your mind unexpectedly? Which stories of the Scripture provide the impetus into expanding your awareness of the presence of God in your daily life? What passage do you lean upon when the hoary head of reality strips you bare?

The primary Lenten disciplines are reading scripture, fasting, acts of good works, and daily prayer. Various traditions, in and out of the Lutheran faith, have additional disciplines. The intent, regardless of one's practice, is the deliberate journey to deepen spiritual awareness, come closer to God, and to prepare for the celebration of Easter.

The questions raised in the opening paragraph can serve both as a catalyst and a means to measure one's journey. Did your responses come easily? Did the questions invite you to "pause" from a stream of thoughts and entice further reflection? Did the questions spur a remembrance of a person, experience, or a particular period of time?

In the 1970s, people saw only 500 to 1,600 ads per day. By 2017, the average American encountered 4,000 to 10,000 ads daily. Facebook Advertising alone reaches 2.11 billion people. But here's the twist: our brains filter out most of these stimuli to prevent information overload. We consciously notice only a fraction of the ads and other stimuli we encounter according to neuroscience and perception research. The research reveals that we filter out most ads or other stimuli, focusing on only a small fraction defined by what we desire and treasure.

May the disciplines of Lent, practiced throughout the year, combined with consistent worship, shape both your filter and responses to the questions above.
Amen.

Interim Pastor

Second Service Continues on First Sunday, Once a Month

SAVE THE DATE!! Lenten Sunday School Series

To Pause at the Threshold: Reflections on Living on the Border

A Lenten Easter Study Opportunity Led by the Rev. Stewart Pattison Sundays from March 3 to April 14 (not on Easter Sunday) OR Wednesday Mornings from 10-11 am in the Luther Room

I will be leading a six-week Lenten-Easter study-reflection group on the theme of The "Thresholds." We will meet in the Luther Room after the service ends. I will draw on the reflections of the contemplative Esther de Waal in her book, To Pause at the Threshold: Reflections on Living on the Border. The border is that of England and Wales which she develops as a metaphor for the movements of the spiritual life. We cross many thresholds daily, often unaware that we are doing so. By becoming mindful of these crossing points, I hope to introduce spiritual practices which will deepen awareness of the love of God for us in even the most routine activities. The class will build toward Holy Week and the great threshold of Jesus' death and resurrection. By identifying our thresholds with those of Jesus, we will find that there is no moment of life that is untouched by the Cross and the Empty Tomb.

My approach is shaped by a three-year certificate course in Spiritual Formation and a two-year certificate course in Spiritual Direction, both from Columbia Theological Seminary (PCUSA). I also meet monthly with a Spiritual Direction Peer Supervision group. If you have questions, please email me at stewartepattison@gmail.com.

To register or learn more, call Alice at 603-539-4773, x220, or email her at: alice@calumet.org.

New England Synod Assembly SAVE THE DATE!

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America's New England 2024 Synod Assembly will be June 6-8, 2024 at the DCU Center in Worcester, MA. At this 3-day assembly, we will elect a new bishop of the synod. Check the church's kiosk where more information about the Assembly is posted.

LOCAL GRIEF SUPPORT GROUPS

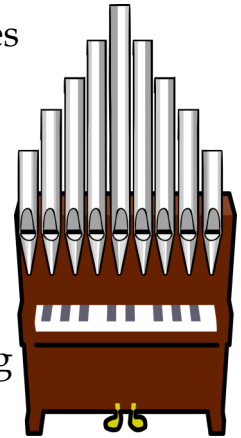

- Run by Broad Reach Hospice's bereavement coordinator, Rebecca Chesbro, this grief support group is open to anyone grieving the loss of a spouse. It meets on the first and third Tuesdays at 2 pm in the Luther Room at St. Peter's.
- The Northside United Methodist Church, 701 Airline Road, Brewster, has a grief support group at their church for all who are experiencing some type of grief that meets on the second and fourth Wednesdays at 2 pm.

Great News Briefs:

First, the congregational council appointed Suzanne Bassett to fill the position of Treasurer effective immediately.

Second, two anonymous donors made additional pledges to the Pipes for Praise totaling $64,000. One gift of $34,000 is given to offset a portion of anticipated expense increases.

The second gift is to be used as a dollar-for-dollar match over a three year period. The Pipes for Praise committee will be sending an appeal letter out shortly. The donor announced the initial dollar-for-dollar match will be for donations received (up to $15,000) during the months of March and April 2024.

Coming to the Table

by Riitta Passananti

we are all beautiful we of all ages all shapes all sizes
all backgrounds all kneeling into grace beyond understanding we are beautiful we who sing in choir we who only hum and fumble we who lose our place we who inspire and we who crave to be inspired we
the seekers we the believers we the aging with creaky joints and faltering memories clinging to things that were we the young fidgeting and chafing against tradition we in full stride of middle years with workday burdens we who laugh and sometimes cry we who only smile and paint a public face over private sorrows we who serve we who fail to follow through we the mothers we the fathers we the restless children we are all beautiful as the child transfigured in the innocence of eager hands reaching for the mystery
beyond understanding,

Riitta is a member of the church I served in Rhode Island. Her poem expresses profoundly both who we are as Jesus people, and who we aspire to be. Good words to keep in mind as we move forward in faith.

Food Pantry Update

Loaves and Fish Pantry

Monday: 1:00 - 3:00 pm Tuesday: 3:30 - 5:00 pm
Wednesday: 12:30 - 2:30 Friday: 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

We are very grateful and excited about Pastor Dennis and Barbara's Lenten Challenge to the congregation to use the special sales when shopping and donate the "free" or sale items to our pantry. Our regular clients have already noticed the wonderful variety of items that are coming into the pantry. There are many great digital coupons, if you are good at using technology, and often they allow or even require multiple purchases. Our hope is that, even when we list items that are in short supply, many will continue to use any Buy One Get One deals to fill our barrels and shelves.

In an effort to make our families feel a part of our special St. Peter's community, we have passed out holiday cards or greetings from St. Peter's with a little treat. The week before Easter we would like to do this again so we would appreciate bags of individually wrapped candy or treats to include with each card. Seeking help when experiencing food insecurity is never easy and so having a small, welcoming place to get a little help is something we can offer here at the Loaves and Fishes Pantry. The Pantry will be closed on Good Friday, March 29.

The pantry donation barrel will remain by the front door, but we also have one located right outside the pantry. Now that we are using the fellowship hall regularly, feel free to use either container or drop in and visit when the pantry is open. Thank you for all that you do for our neighbors!

Lenten Challenge

Pastor and Barbara Dennis ask the congregation to join them in bolstering the food pantry at St. Peter's. Two of the Lenten season disciplines are fasting and doing acts of love. This Lenten season, Pastor and Barbara will shop with an eye on "Buy one, get one free" or "Buy one and get another one at a reduced price." The free or reduced-price item will then be shared with the food bank. In fact, they plan to set aside funds to simply donate "both" items.

Will you join us?

St. Peter's Ministries

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

St. Peter's Prayer Shawl Ministry will meet on Friday, March 1 and Friday, March 15 at 1:30 pm in the Luther Room. Please join us for prayerful work and pleasant conversation.

Last year we were able to gift 28 prayer shawls to recipients for various reasons and have gifted over 800 shawls since the ministry began. As there continues to be a need for shawls, please keep knitting or crocheting. During the winter months, it is nice to have something warm and cozy on the lap!

ESTHER CIRCLE

Because of a snowstorm we were not able to meet in February. The Esther Circle will (hopefully) meet for lunch at Brax Landing on Tuesday, March 12 at 11:30 am.

SACRED SORROW

"Grief is neither a problem to be solved nor a difficulty to be overcome. It is a sacred expression of love; a sacred sorrow."

The St. Peter's ministry for bereaved parents will meet on Thursday, March 21 at 1:30 pm in the Luther Room.

If you have experienced the death of a child - of any age no matter how long ago - please consider joining us. It truly helps to share your journey with those who understand your pain.

"Grief is the essence of bittersweet. The sorrow is bitter beyond words. But the love relationship that created the grief in the first place was indeed sweet. Both are true. Both are real."

For more information about the Prayer Shawl Ministry, Esther Circle, or Sacred Sorrow, please contact Marianne O'Boyle at 508-775-2757 or marianne@o Boyle.net.

Extinction of the Species

Can you imagine God is trying to tell us something?

Charles Darwin told us about the “Evolution of the Species,” and now we’re learning about the extinction of many living organisms. The International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) has stated: “Over a quarter of all species have survivals that are threatened.” Thanks to efforts by the IUCN, five species are beginning to bounce back. They are the Northern Bald Ibis (below), Round Island Gecko, Amsterdam Albatross, Cross River Gorilla, and the White-Naped Crane, but the good news does not balance the bad news which is that one million species are threatened with extinction within decades.

Scientists are taking extraordinary measure to save birds, fish, reptiles, amphibians, and other organisms such as plants. Since 1750, over 50 species of plants have gone extinct with unknown consequences except for the lack of oxygen they would release. Do the people who cut our rain forests not realize they’re cutting the amount of oxygen they can inhale? Fortunately there are 50,000 species of plants on our planet, but reforestation is a very important factor when considering the green foundation of our ecosystem. On the Hawaiian island of Kauai, there’s a plant called Melanthera waimeaensis with very narrow leaves. Only seven of them remain as they were crowding out Hawaii’s native species.

For decades scientists hypothesized it was an asteroid crashing into the Gulf of Mexico that wiped out the dinosaurs. It now appears it wasn’t just the asteroid but instead a natural extinction. Keep in mind, turtles were not wiped out when the dinosaurs vanished.

What worries me is the eventual extinctions of all organisms such as man. The IUCN’s methods of conservation are not to be ignored. I wish Charles Darwin was alive today to predict the demise or preservation of living organisms.

For fellowship with God, we must save our species!

Pastoral Response: The Genesis story indicates the inhabitants of the created world were one. The symbiotic relationship was broken by humanity’s fall. Thus, for diverse reasons, whether it be by cosmic events or human actions, all earth’s inhabitants have suffered. Sadly, whether it be our relationship with the earth or each other, the suffering will continue until we “repent” of our attitude that we, and not God, are the center of the known world.

Grandchildren visiting? Would they like to light the candles?

Since December, we have included members of our church school as acolytes for the Sunday worship service. It is a great way to include children and youth in worship and by all accounts, they really enjoy performing this service.

The worship team would like to extend the invitation to visiting grandchildren, and nieces and nephews as well. It is also a possibility for grandparents and grandchildren to light the candles together. If you know of a time when children will be visiting and they might like to light the sanctuary candles, please let the church office know or email mjpattison@gmail.com. We will make sure there is someone ready to walk them through the process.

Dulcimer Fellowship Dates in March

This month the dulcimer group will again adjust their schedule. The Transitions team will be holding a congregational meeting on March 17 so the dulcimer group will meet on Sunday March 10. Also, I have decided to move the mid-week session from Wednesday to Thursday March 7. There is less going on at the church on Thursdays and with the construction, this seems like a better time to meet. We will still meet at 4:00 pm on Thursday, March 7.

Our group is making slow and steady progress. Recently we were joined by members of our church school class, and we always welcome new people. Watching is also welcome. Since some of our group have purchased their own dulcimers, right now there is a loaner dulcimer available if someone would like to take it home. If you would like to borrow it please contact MJ Pattison (mjpattison@gmail.com).

THANK YOU NOTES AND LETTERS

February 4, 2024

Dear Friends,

It's raining hard. The wind is really blowing. Yuba City, where we are living, and where the church is that Tiffany is pastor of, just lost power. It almost feels like Cape Cod! You have often been in our thoughts. On the one hand, I cannot believe it's already been four months since we left. There have been a hundred times I've wanted to share a hundred thank you's. Thank you for the goodbye celebrations. Thank you for your help after I fractured my foot. Thank you for helping us pack and clean and dispose of things. We couldn't have done it without you. Thank you for your prayers. Thank you for teaching me about what it means to be church, and to be community.

And now to finish that earlier thought: On the other hand, I can't believe it's only been four months. So much has happened! Regarding church, Tiffany and St. Andrew Presbyterian have hit the ground running. There's a lot of energy and a lot of ministry happening. As for me, twenty hours a week and two Sundays a month I serve as interim pastor at Red Bluff Presbyterian Church, an hour and a half north of Yuba City. Yes, everything is far apart in Northern California. There is lots of agricultural land. In fact, some members of the church who run a walnut and prune farm have a small guest house, which is where I sometimes stay overnight. I do regular pulpit supply for one Lutheran church east of Sacramento, and one Sunday a month for another Lutheran Church east of Yuba City. So, I feel like an old-time itinerant preacher, and I am getting to see much of California's northern landscape. We have a new bishop, and I am also active in the call process. When not doing something for a church, I'm playing with an orchestra, found a group to play pickle ball with, or am hiking somewhere with Molly and Tiffany!

Much of what I have to share with people in the churches I'm serving is due to my shared experiences with you, for which I feel much gratitude.

I wish and pray for your continued well-being, both individually and as a congregation, during this interim time which sounds like it is going very well. Thanks be to God!

With gratitude, and in Christ,
Christian and Tiffany Nicely Holleck
