From the Pastor

The Pulitzer Prize-winning nature poet Mary Oliver was nothing if not extraordinarily observant. The delicate way she was able to capture the usually unseen of plant and animal life, both parallel and foil to our own, strange, human yearnings. You have the sense that she spent hours and days watching the same foxes, fish, and ferns - in their day-to-day sameness and in their miraculous transformations:

But listen now to what happened to the actual trees;
toward the end of that summer they pushed new leaves from their stubbed limbs.
It was the wrong season, yes, but they couldn't stop. They looked like telephone poles and didn't care. And after the leaves came blossoms. For some things
there are no wrong seasons.
Which is what I dream of for me.
From Hurricane

By the time you read this, we will have passed the one-year anniversary of my call to you - the people of St. Peter's - to serve as your pastor (it's also the seventh year of my ordination). The leaves are blossoming in the early work we have done together - with more to come. Change and transformation will continue to be fellow travellers on the journey of discovering what God is calling us to at this moment.

Of course, constantly being in a state of becoming is difficult and daunting, and I want to commend everyone for your enthusiasm, stamina and flexibility so far. And yes, there will be more to come! As we cross into the next liturgical year at the end of November, there will be book study opportunities, movie nights, continued worship experiments, and the possibility of a strategic planning process to unfold. All to serve our deepening call as the hands and feet of Christ.

How do we hang on when new buds of life appear when we least expect them too? We do as God has called us to do: love and serve our neighbor while we humbly accept the easy yoke of Jesus.

I love what Mary Oliver says in Hurricane, that for the growing trees there is no wrong season.

I pray this for our community as we continue to grow in faith and service.

It is what I dream, for us.

See you in worship,

Christephor

From the President

The Bishop is coming! The Bishop is coming!
On Sunday, November 22, 2026 the Rev. Nathan Pipho (pronounced Pea Poh and rhymes with depot as in Home Depot) will be visiting St. Peter's. (Rumor has it he may also attend the Cranberry Fair on Saturday.) He was elected to a 6-year term as Bishop of the New England Synod and began serving his term on August 1, 2024.

Bishop Pipho was ordained in 2002 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Sudbury, MA. He is from Iowa and holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Wartburg College, Waverly, Iowa (1998) and a Master of Divinity from Lutheran Theological Seminary (now named United Lutheran Seminary) in Philadelphia, PA in 2002. In 2016 he earned a Master in Public Administration from the Harvard Kennedy School in Cambridge, MA.

Prior to being elected as Bishop of the New England Synod, the Rev. Pipho was serving as pastor at Trinity Lutheran Church, Worcester, MA. He has had other roles serving parish ministries including being the Protestant Chaplain at Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI).

The Rev. Pipho will preach at St. Peter's on Sunday, November 22, 2026. Immediately following the worship service there will be a luncheon held in the Fellowship Hall. During the luncheon there will be a "question and answer time" and the Bishop will share some of his thoughts with us.

I know all of us will offer a warm St. Peter's welcome to the Bishop.

Please note there is a sign-up sheet for the luncheon on the office hallway bulletin board. Looking forward to seeing everyone on the 22nd (and 21st.)

Helping Hands Needed for Bishop's Visit

On Sunday, November 22nd, immediately following worship, a luncheon honoring Bishop Nathan Pipho's visit will be held downstairs in Fellowship Hall.

Volunteers are needed:

- On Saturday, November 21st, after the Cranberry Fair, beginning at 2:15 PM to set-up tables and chairs in Fellowship Hall
- On Sunday, November 22nd to break-down tables and chairs and set-up for the weekly Bridge Groups after the luncheon

Please contact Suzanne and Bruce Bassett, event coordinators, these to volunteer for either or both of these important tasks: bbassk9@me.com or 201-788-4207.

Thank you!

Loaves & Fishes Food Pantry

Monday	1-3 pm
Tuesday	3:30 - 5 pm
Wednesday	12:30 - 2:30 pm
Friday	10 am - 12 pm

The Loaves and Fishes Pantry has been very busy this fall. Our numbers for the month of September were up by 20% on average over August figures. We served 104 more hungry people (638 versus 554), provided 664 bags of groceries (up 22% from 541 in August), and the number of visits went up to 220 from 183 (20%). We anticipate this trend will continue through the rest of the fall and winter.

We signed up clients for free winter coats through a partnership with Project Warm and will be starting sign-ups for free Thanksgiving meal kits and Santa Stop vouchers in the next couple of weeks.

The retirement of three volunteers combined with a couple of snowbird volunteers going south for the winter has created an urgent need for volunteers to staff the pantry during shopping hours.

Mondays and Wednesdays are the highest priority at this point. If you or any of your friends would be interested in coming to see what the volunteers who interact with our clients do, please contact me. I'll set up some time to discuss what's needed and will show you around. Without all of you, our pantry would not exist.

Thanks for your caring and support! Claudia

Sacred Sorrow

The St. Peter's ministry for bereaved parents will meet on Thursday, November 19, at 1:30 in the Conference Room.

All parents who have suffered the misfortune of losing a child are invited to join this group. It is not necessary to be a member of St. Peter's so if you know someone whose child has died feel free to tell them about us.

"Grief is neither a problem to be solved nor a difficulty to be overcome. It is a sacred expression of love; a sacred sorrow."

As the holidays approach it helps to have a plan for handling celebrations that may not feel celebratory with a family member missing.

"What we have once enjoyed, we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes part of us." Helen Keller

Please contact Marianne O'Boyle with questions about Sacred Sorrow.

Esther Circle

The Esther Circle plans to meet on Tuesday, November 10th at 12:30 in the Luther Room. Preparations continue for the Cranberry Fair to be held on Saturday, November 21st.

The Esther Circle supports a variety of organizations with the funds raised at the fair, and your support is much appreciated! Knitted/crocheted items will be gratefully accepted. Hats, mittens, socks, scarves, and baby and children's things are always popular.

We continue to sort and price jewelry, also. See dates and times in the TWASP and on the bulletin board.

For questions, please contact Marianne O'Boyle or Lynn Hatch.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Although the St.Peter's Prayer Shawl Ministry has not been meeting in person, we encourage you to continue to knit or crochet prayer shawls at home. A growing shawl on the lap is comforting in cooler weather!

Soup & Service

Join us on Wednesday, December 9, 2026, at 12:00 noon in the Luther Room for a soup lunch, followed by a Service of the Word.

These services will be held every other month through April, 2027.

Thrivent Food Pantry Drive

Thrivent Financial is promoting a food collection challenge again this year. As you may recall, last year Paul Bongfeldt spearheaded his drive at St. Peter's, and we tcollected hundreds of non-perishable food items to benefit our Loaves and Fishes Food Pantry. We also won the additional $500 grant based on our amazing collection. St. Peter's participated in this challenge again this year. As of the third week of October we have collected 760 items. The final totals will be published in the December Network. Thank you for supporting this important ministry.

Flu & Covid Update for 2026

A friendly reminder from the retired Parish Nurses at SPLC! If you haven't already received your flu and COVID vaccine for 2026, here is an opportunity to do so.

The town of Harwich is having a Flu/COVID Clinic on November 5, 2026, from 1- 4 PM at the Harwich Community Center, Oak St., Harwich. There is registration information on the bulletin board in the "office hallway."

If you are not a resident of Harwich, you may obtain vaccines at locations such as CVS, Walgreens, and pharmacies at either Stop and Shop or Shaw's. Most places do not require you to have an appointment, and the vaccines are free.

Another friendly reminder: if you are not feeling well and have symptoms such as coughing, fever, aches/chills, please stay home to recuperate. Sunday morning services are live-streamed and are available on YouTube during the week. We encourage the wearing of masks as needed and frequent handwashing at this time of year in particular.

It will take all of us to keep our community safe and hopefully without a major outbreak of flu or COVID this fall and winter.

Here's to a healthy, happy fall and winter season for all of us!

Peace and blessings,

The Retired Parish Nurses

How it All Began . . .

Fourteen year ago, members of the congregation recognized a need to support homeless students on the Cape. The PSALM group established a Homeless Student Program in response to this need.

To date we have provided over $110,000 to 879 homeless and at-risk students through the proceeds from the Cranberry Fair.

You can help by:
> baking a batch of cookies
> baking a pie
> baking your specialty for the bake sale > bringing things for Attic Treasures > making a donation for our Cranberry Fair on November 21st.

Last year we provided gifts to ONE HUNDRED NINE students. We are grateful for your assistance as we continue to help students in desperate need.

Below are more details about the Fair. We thank you for your support.

God Bless.

Cranberry Fair

Saturday, November 21
9 AM - 2 PM

The PSALM Group is busy preparing for the Cranberry Fair on November 21st. Shoppers will be able to select from an assortment of delicious holiday cookies in Cookie Lane, the Silent Auction, Baked Goods, Homemade Pies, and crafts and home décor in our Holiday Gift Shop. We will offer a wonderful assortment of Specialty Foods – including deli items such as chili, baked beans, soups, and much more. Also be sure to visit the Jewelry Junction, the knitted items table, and Attic Treasures.

Demand for cookies, baked goods, and pies has grown each year!! We are asking Congregation members to bake and donate a homemade pie or one or two batches of homemade holiday cookies. Consider a new recipe you've been wanting to try or perhaps a family favorite!

Please be sure to bring the recipe or a list of all ingredients. **

Cranberry Food Court

Join us for lunch in the Cranberry Food Court. Homemade soups, sandwiches, pulled pork, hot dogs, and baked beans will be ready for your enjoyment.

Proceeds will be used for outreach to women and children in need - particularly for homeless and at-risk students in the Nauset and Monomoy School Districts. Last year we provided support for 109 students.

The remaining Fair items will be for sale after church on Sun. November 22, and we appreciate your support. Proceeds from Sunday sales will benefit our Loaves and Fishes Pantry.

Next PSALM Meeting:
November 12th at 2 pm

Come join us to feel the spirit moving through us!!

Attic Treasures @the Cranberry Fair!

Attic Treasures is back again this year at the Cranberry Fair on Saturday, November 21st. Did you know that in recent years, Attic Treasures has earned at least $1,000 to give to homeless and at-risk young people in the local schools? Want to help? Contact Trish Crocker or Peg Flood. Not only do we need your donations, but we also need help in setting up before the Fair and after the Fair to clear out any remaining items.

Mark your calendar with these important dates:

SUN, 11.08

Donation acceptance begins after worship. Doors to the Luke & John rooms downstairs will be open ½ hour after church for drop-off. Help carrying in donations is appreciated! See acceptance guidelines below.

MON, 11.09 - WEDS, 11.18

Sorting and pricing of donations. Drop-off continues in the Luke & John rooms during church open hours (please call ahead).

SAT, 11.21

The Cranberry Fair! Visit us and take home a treasure! Something you need or just love! Or maybe a gift.

MON, 11.23 - MON, 11.30

FREE shopping for Food Pantry clients (during regular Pantry hours).

WED, 12.1 @ 1:30 PM

Cleaning out the Luke & John classrooms. We'll need helpers with larger vehicles (SUVs, trucks) to take remaining items to free shops (like the Harwich Treasure Chest), thrift stores, or town disposal/recycle areas.

Guidelines for donations

- Usable, attractive, and saleable household goods
- Christmas decor
- Children's toys and storybooks (no stuffed animals)

What we cannot accept:

- No computers, TVs, small appliances, or other electronics
- No clothing
- No books (except for children's storybooks)
- No children's equipment such as strollers, cribs, or high chairs
- No large or heavy furniture or desks
- Nothing that takes 2 people to carry

- No single dishes, glasses, or silverware unless collectible
- No "advertising" mugs
- No florist glass vases (leave them in the sacristy for the Flower Ministry)
- Nothing broken or soiled
- Nothing dropped off after November 19. Our volunteers need time to sort and price.
- Nothing you would not buy, assuming you needed it.

We hope to see you at the Cranberry Fair!

Dulcimer Fellowship

November is turning out to be a big month for the Dulcimer fellowship. Our group has been invited to provide a prelude and postlude for worship at St. Peters on November 29th. We will plan to have one practice session via Zoom on Thursday evening, November 12th at 7:15 p.m. and our regular monthly in person gathering on Sunday November 22nd at 3 p.m.

This gives us two more practice sessions as well as the warmup at 8:45 on Sunday November 29th.

Since many of us will already be at church on November 29th there is interest in having a light lunch together and then playing some of our Christmas carols after lunch. This would enable some of our community participants who have their own Sunday morning commitments to join us for lunch and some playing time around 12:30 p.m.

As always new players are always welcome. We have loaner dulcimers. It is possible to begin playing with us almost immediately. Everyone is welcome to play on November 29th regardless of skill level (although we will need a count to make sure we set up the right number of chairs).

St. Peter's Sojourners

We continue to invite new walkers to join us weekly on Tuesday mornings.

The Sojourners walk at a different location on the Cape each week, and we are always open to a new trail we have not tried before, perhaps it might be your favorite. All details are provided in the weekly email, sent a day or two in advance with info on where the walks will be.

We meet at the church parking lot at 8:10 a.m. for carpooling, or at the trailhead at 8:30 a.m. Directions to the start of the walk are always included.

After the walk, we go for breakfast (optional) at a local restaurant. We try to walk year-round. In the winter months we start 30 minutes later.

St. Peter's at Calumet

Several St. Peter's members had a wonderful time at Camp Calumet on the third weekend in September. Our activities included Holden Evening Prayer, hiking, relaxing on the beach, a discussion on joy, a pontoon boat ride, a campfire, and Sunday morning worship. Some also hit North Conway for the stores, visiting a nearby farm stand, and of course dining! Thanks to the Anderson Fund for supporting this great weekend!

Financial Alphabet Soup

by the Finance Committee

As we approach the end of 2026 there is a significant deficit of more than $30,000 remaining on St. Peter's financial books. As you may recall, at the annual meeting in February 2026, the congregation voted to approve a spending plan with a shortfall of over $53,000, with the assumed goal of eliminating it by year's end.

For this reason, we are republishing this article from May 2026 about RMD and QCD. We are encouraging givers to whom it applies to give any money remaining in their accounts subject to RMD to St. Peter's.

Please take a look at the following article and give what you can.

Thanks from the Finance Team.

QCD and RMD: the Alphabet Soup of Charitable Giving by Seniors

The following general explanations are meant to inspire you to consider how you and St. Peter's might benefit from QCD and RMD. It is best to discuss how these tax regulations apply to your individual situation with a tax expert or financial advisor.

What is QCD?

QCD stands for qualified charitable distribution. A Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) allows individuals aged 70½ and older to make tax-free donations directly from their IRA or 401(k) to a qualified charity, potentially satisfying part or all of their required minimum distributions (RMDs).

What is RMD?

RMD stands for required minimum distribution. A Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) is the minimum amount you must withdraw from certain tax-deferred retirement accounts, such as traditional IRAs, starting at age 73 to avoid paying penalties. The rules for RMD starting ages have changed recently: in the past, the starting age for RMDs was 70½. However, as of 2023, the starting age stands at 73 and is set to increase to 75 in the future. You can contribute all or a portion of your RMD to a qualified charity, but it must be sent directly to the charity from the account where it is invested; for example, Fidelity, Vanguard, Schwab, Merrill, etc.

St. Peter's Lutheran Church is a qualified charity.

Did you know you can make donations to St. Peter's including your regular offering directly from your IRA or 401(K) to satisfy the requirements for QCD and potentially RMD? Donating to the St. Peter's Lutheran Church Food Pantry, Parsonage Fund, Capital Improvement Fund, one of the other missions, or your regular offering from your retirement account is a great way to take advantage of QCD and RMD tax benefits you may be eligible for. Arrange for checks sent by investment companies to be made out to /payable to St Peter's Lutheran Church of Cape Cod with your name on the memo line. You can also notify Lois Thomas, Financial Secretary so the RMD donation is properly recorded by St. Peter's. Please contact whomever advises you on taxes or investments to learn more about your individual situation.

Staff Updates

We have hired a local cleaning company to handle the regular weekly cleaning. All areas of the church were deep cleaned at the end of September. What a noticeable difference that made! We are still working on the best solution for table and chair set up for various events and meetings and may be putting out the call for help. Let the office know if you're able to be on call for moving duties. Thank you.
